

Inspiration page

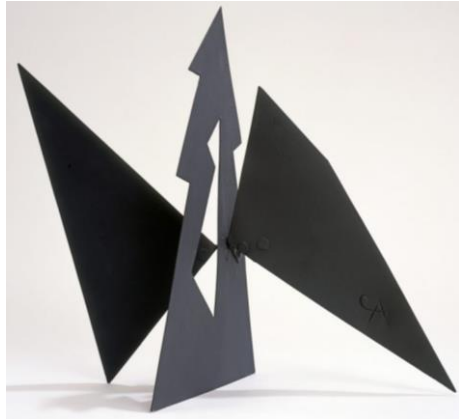

Look at these Pope sculptures of he and his wife. What can you tell about these two people and how they relate to each other? Are they looking at each other or at you? Are they calm or animated?
How has the artist used materials, shape, form or texture to describe these two people and their relationship?
How do they make you feel?

Sir Anthony Caro (above + below)
Calder

Eva Hesse (right)

Alexandar Calder (above)

Here are some expressive sculptures by other artists that are or could be made in paper or card.