

Care-ful Museums Symposium

Thurs 30 April, 10 – 4pm

Holburne Museum, Bath

10 – 10.30 Arrival, refreshments in Clore Learning Room

Brownsword Gallery

10.30 – 10.45 Welcome, housekeeping, context, and introductions (Louise Campion)

10.45 – 11.15 Hollie Smith-Charles (Director, Creative Health & Change, ACE)
ACE's vision for Creative Health in context of museums/ art galleries/ heritage spaces

11.20 – 11.45 Nuala Morse (Associate Professor of Museum Studies, Uni of Leicester)
Museums as spaces of social care – sharing wider European perspectives and understanding of the role of museums

11.45 – 12 SHORT BREAK (15 mins)

12 – 12.20 Victoria Hume (Director of Culture, Health & Wellbeing Alliance) and Louise Campion (Head of Learning & Engagement, Holburne) National Policy context, Creative Health Quality Framework and Working Together recommendations – what they mean

12.20 – 12.45 Care-ful Practice – Community of Practice artists and participants from Pathways to Wellbeing Programme (Holburne) share their Care-ful Practice 'provocations' resource and reflections

12.45 – 1.00 Launch of Creative Health Network – what is it, how to join

1 – 2pm LUNCH

Opportunities to see The Shape of Care, Zandra Rhodes, Don McCullin exhibitions

2 – 3.25 'Care in practice' Carousel (7 x afternoon workshops – sign up on the day)

-Jo Valentine (National Museum Royal Navy, Portsmouth & Queen Alexandra Hospital)

-Natasha Kidd (Bath Spa University) Young Carer's Project, Bath

-Anna Highley (Holburne Museum) – Creative Health in Care Homes

Brownsword Gallery

3.25 – 3.40 Round-up of learning from the day – Daniel Regan (Creative Health Consultant and Artist)

3.40 - 4 pm Thanks and reflections - Chris Stephens (Director of Holburne Museum)